

Orientation Programme for the 2017-19 batch Inauguration on 4th September 2017

The orientation programme for the 2017-19 batch of student executives of M.P. Birla Institute of Management began on 4th September 2017. The event began with lighting of the lamp by Dr. K V Prabhakar, Former Vice Chancellor of Gulbarga University and Senior Professor at MPBIM, Dr. N S Viswanath Director & Principal MPBIM, Sri. Paul Raj

CEO of Capskill Consultants & Former MD of HMT Watches Ltd., besides new student executives.

The event also featured Bharatanatyam by Kum. Meghana. Sri. Paul Raj shared his thoughts on what the industry expects from the management graduates. The event followed 'Ice Breaking Ceremony in which the new student executives interacted with their seniors and alumni. This is aimed at facilitating the interaction between students, overcoming the inhibitions. The event was coordinated and conducted by the student executives of 2016-18 batch.

The topics covered under the programme were: Communication Skills, Life Skills-Yoga, Meditation etc., Negotiation Skills, Interpersonal Skills, Computing Skills, Norms & Etiquettes, Social Awareness, Ethics, Business Updating, Personality Development, Leadership, Eight Habits of Successful

People, Team Building, Legal Essentials of Business, Health Tips, Accounting for Non-Accounting People, Application of Economics in Business and Working of Stock Markets and Placement.

The orientation programme spread over three weeks with over 20 sessions was handled by faculty and experts from the industry. Sri. Manjunath, a Yoga Guru conducted a programme on Yoga for the students of the new batch. Sri. Rahul Dhawan spoke on working of stock markets.

The Students executives had a follow up sessions under Business Leadership Forum which featured 7 talks by business leaders in the city and also training in softskills at Garwale Outbound Adventure Learning Centre, Garwale, Kodagu District.